

It rained all day long. The wind and rain knocked the remaining leaves to the ground where they were swept into the street. Today was a typical fall day.	12 25 29
Just two days ago, the sun was out and the temperatures were very pleasant. Raking leaves into large playful piles was very relaxing.	42 52
The family worked together gathering the maple leaves into piles. Kids will be kids, and they loved jumping and hiding in the leaves. Even their dog liked to romp around in the leaves. It was fun for everyone.	62 76 90
The next day, the weather changed slightly. Clouds began to roll into the area and darken the sky. It did not rain then, but it was clear that winter was near. The family thought that the ground would be covered in no time. Winter was approaching fast.	101 117 129 137
They awoke to the rain hitting the roof of their home. It was a light rain, so they figured it would rain all day. They were right. Now the kids would not be able to play in the leaves. The leaves were all wet and brown. They were no longer dry and colorful.	152 167 182 190
The winds picked up speed and sent the piles of leaves blowing across the yard and into the street. The kids thought they were pretty lucky to have been able to play in the leaves yesterday.	202 215 226
Later in the day, the street sweeper came into their neighborhood and, with its mighty vacuum, gobbled up the leaves that had found their way into the street. The leaves were gone.	237 250 258
That night the kids were tucked into bed for the evening. As they slept, the rain turned to snow.	271 277
The kids dreamed of sledding and snowmen. The next morning their dreams came true. Snow!	287 292
